SUMMARY

Buddy Norman, President of KW Commercial, joined Keller Williams Realty in 2008 to lead the development and growth of the company’s new commercial division. Buddy is a proven leader of character and integrity, and demands excellence as a standard. With two decades of commercial real estate experience, Buddy has a proven record of building commercial brokerage teams across the United States.

While attending Baylor, he founded “Baylor Buddies”, a nonprofit organization that matches Baylor students with Waco’s underprivileged children in a mentoring program. “Baylor Buddies” is still an active program today. Buddy, his wife and three children live in New Braunfels, Texas.
