A dual agent may not disclose any confidential information that would place one party at an advantage over the other party and may not disclose any of the following information without the informed consent of the party to whom the information pertains: 1) that a buyer is willing to pay more than the price offered; 2) that a seller is willing to accept less than the asking price; 3) motivating factors of either party for buying or selling; 4) that a party will agree to financing terms other than those offered; 5) repairs or improvements a seller is willing to make as a condition of sale; and 6) or any concession having an economic impact upon the transaction that either party is willing to make.
