I wanted to thank you for being so wonderful during the most trying time of my life! You were so patient and considerate and never once made me feel bad about the inconvenience you had to put up with. You not only made trouble free a sale under difficult conditions but never once complained or put any burdens upon me. I cant even imagine what it would have been like if I'd had any other agent!

Mike was our Realtor in our only house sales transaction ever—we have been living for 40 years in our “first” house! We have kept up with our home's value through the newsletter Mike and Brenda send out; their sign is one of the more attractive we've seen. They were able to show the house to so many buyers it kept our spirits up and when the offer came in, they were patient and educated us for the best terms ever!

Thanks & Peace, John and Patti

Since we were relocating and didn't really want to move, this process started out as a negative one. What an amazing and pleasant surprise to see how much effort you put behind your Mike and Brenda sign. For someone with your experience and tenure, it would have been easy for you to rest on your laurels and just wait for a buyer. The cleanup, staging, bringing in Inspectors and handimen, dealing with neighbor issues, the excellent marketing and open houses...you worked harder than any realtors I've ever come across and the execution was flawless.

Your service, honesty and advocacy on our behalf was worth every penny that we paid...if not more!

(Honestly Brenda, I don't write a lot of these because I am pretty difficult to satisfy, but this is one letter I am happy to write. Thanks again for all that you and Mike did)

Since Steve gets transferred so frequently, I've dealt with a lot of realtors before but never have I had one that provided as many services as you did. The quotes and repairwork, the staging, the marketing and connections that you have are unreal! The market for homes over 2 million usually takes awhile so we were anticipating a long and drawn out (and emotional) selling period but you sold the house in less than a month in a tough market! But the service you provided for us after we moved and before we closed is what we were caught off guard with. You personally handled everything the movers did not take. From loading up your car with trips to Goodwill, and getting the trash hauled off to getting the house deep cleaned—you did it all. Thanks for relieving our stress—what little we had this time!

Never again will I try to take it upon myself to begin a home search without you! We knew we were going to list with you but thought we wouldn't bother you with the initial search since its so easy to google everything. But with the websites we have to use being so out of date, and trying to attend open houses as sporadic as they are, when you stepped in and organized our showing with all the right houses, we saved so much time! With inventory so low, we were amazed on how many homes you showed us that were "quiet" listings—even with other agents since you are so well-connected! The best part though was how on target you were with the anticipated sales price of our house. It made planning for the second purchase so easy having the right figures to use! We'll never try without you again!

Thanks for answering the phone and helping us with our rental! Because the inventory is so low and agents don't want to show rentals, it was almost impossible for us to get help! You spent over 2 hours with me without an appointment and I appreciate the invaluable information you gave us. Not only were we able to get the house with all the competition out there, you made sure we got the terms we wanted. You know who our realtor is going to be when we purchase!

Mike and Brenda,

Getting into the renovation business at the wrong time sure isn't fun—but getting rid of 4 properties when all are short sales is worse! We tried 2 other realtors but the marketing didn't work and we became nervous they would never sell. With all 4 sold, we can now look to sell our personal home and downsize into something more appropriate for just the two of us. For sure you will be our realtors forever!
