Personal Reference

... I would like to highly recommend our real estate agent Mrs. Lunnet Begg. Her services were outstanding throughout the 10- month building process. I especially appreciate her several personal trips to the building site to deal directly with our builder who fell behind in schedule for completion of our home. I realize that Lunnet simply could have called the builder, but I am convinced that these face-to-face meetings did help in our obtaining an earlier completion date. With my extremely busy schedule and my wife still out of town, we could never have achieved what Lunnet achieved.

In speaking to you last week, you told me that our company is going through changes in our real-estate outside vendor. However, I would consider it a great courtesy to me if you could recommend, refer or suggest Ms. Lunnet Begg to anyone and every one. I think people moving to Austin would be lucky to have such a devoted and caring real estate agent.
