Keller Williams® Realty Premier Properties Celebrates ‘Red Day’ with a Service Project to Assist a Local Homeowner.

Miami—Keller Williams Realty hosts a companywide service initiative to take place on Thursday, May 14th that is dedicated to improving the local communities served by Keller Williams Realty. Each Keller Williams Market Center will participate in a project where the goal is to “renew, energize and donate” in a way that the Market Center sees most appropriate for their community.

Kendall-based Keller Williams® Realty Premier Properties will dedicate their ‘Red Day’ project to assisting a local homeowner with some much-needed repairs and beautification to their property’s exterior. The realtors will help Yolanda Anguiano, resident of Homestead, whose story touched their hearts, by giving her property a facelift. Yolanda Anguiano is a widow who lives in her house located at 429 NW 9th Court in Homestead with her parents, aged 82 and 86, whom she cares for along with a nephew who has a mental disability.

She is currently unemployed and home improvements have not been high on her list of priorities nor on her list of possibilities because of hard economic times. By providing her home with some curb appeal, Keller Williams will be assisting a truly selfless person who has always placed the needs of others above her own.

“We’re glad to help out a person who helps so many others,” says Keller Williams® Realty Premier Properties co-owner Vladimir Golik. Golik, co-owner Louis Erice and a crew of realtors will be performing the labor under the supervision of Sergio Donikian of Sergio Donikian Contractors Inc. Additional sponsors are attorney Robert Fein of The Title Wave, Inc and Eddy Fernandez of All-in-One Mortgage Lenders will be present and helping out. They will be providing all the paint, materials, food, drinks and support to make this project a success.

What: ‘Red Day’, a nationwide service initiative sponsored by Keller Williams Realty. Kendall-based Keller Williams® Realty Premier Properties will participate by giving a struggling homeowner’s property some TLC.

When: May 14th, Thursday. The volunteers from Keller Williams® Realty Premier Properties will start work at 8 a.m.
