Section 4.02 Table of Permitted Uses by District.

The uses of land in the following table have been organized, for ease of use and convenience, into use groups, based upon certain characteristics that the grouped uses may share. These use groups are described below:

1. ANIMAL AND AGRICULTURAL USES. These uses primarily involve the keeping, breeding or use of animals, the production or distribution of produce and farm-related products, and similar associated uses of a rural character or intensity.
2. RESIDENTIAL USES. These uses primarily involve housing of various types and densities, and associated uses typically found in a residential neighborhood.
3. OFFICE AND SERVICE USES. These are generally private-owned or operated uses, or uses of a for-profit nature, that include personal service establishments, financial, executive, administrative, medical and professional offices, workshops and studios, and similar associated uses.
4. COMMUNITY USES. These are generally public-owned or operated uses, or uses of a not-for-profit nature, that primarily involve benefits or services generally provided
