

KELLER WILLIAMS®

R E A L T Y

Atlanta Midtown

The holidays are sneaking up on us already? Here are some things that'll make the time fly even faster.....

Thank you so much for all of your referrals and business.

Mmmmm....Chomp and Stomp.....

Tell me what's better than Chili, Bluegrass Music and Beer in a sunny park with several thousand of your closest friends? The annual Cabbagetown Festival is happening on 11/8 at the new (well, 3 years old I guess) Cabbagetown Park at the corner of Tye and Kirkwood. Don't worry, you can't park close but just follow your nose and the huge crowd and you'll get there. www.chompandstomp.com for all the info. Get there early because they always run out quick.

A Full Service Pet Event right in Grant Park

Intown Healthy Hound and City Kitty, located on Cherokee right across from Zoo Atlanta is holding a huge event on Saturday, 11/8 from 11 am to 4 pm. Among the highlights will be discounted holiday pet photos by the lovely and talented Pat Thomas from Photo Phetish, dog training demos by Jabula, custom pet art personalization and adoptions from Paws Atlanta.

It's going to be a big one and its on the way to get your chili and bluegrass fix. More info at <http://www.intownhealthyhound.com/>

1/2 Price Wine Wednesdays & $1 PBR Mondays at Stella, Osteria and Doc Cheys

Go get the "Karma Card" from your fave noodle bowl and reap the rewards. Enjoy half price wine bottles every Wednesday and $1 PBR beer every Monday at any HomeGrown Restaurant when you use your registered Karma Card. This is just another great benefit of joining the Karma Club. Remember, to enjoy these drink specials, you must swipe your registered Karma Card on your purchase.

First Fridays.....

The East Atlanta Village has recently started a new promotion called First Friday. Participating businesses are attempting to remain open at least an hour later, and to offer discounts, giveaways, sale items and even music and entertainment to make for a more festive atmosphere. Next one is 11/7 so come and get your holiday shopping kicked off.....

Second Sundays.....

"Second Sundays" at Kirkwood Station is the latest open air market to be hosted by the Atlanta Foundation for Public Spaces. The Market will feature art, handcrafted items, organic foods as well as participate with the businesses currently located at Kirkwood Station. Approximately 24 merchant participants are expected. This monthly market will be held on the second Sunday of each month. Dates for 2008:

Sunday, November 9, 2008
Sunday, December 14, 2008

The Market will re-open in 2009 from March - December.
Hours of operation:
Sunday noon - 5:00 p.m.
For more info on Artist Markets visit www.affps.com.

Third Wednesday after the Sixth Full Moon and Second Equinox

Would that be something like June 11th? Ah well, never mind

We Don't Need No Stinkin' Boy Scouts!

The 3rd Annual Atlanta Downhill Challenge (Soap Box Derby) is happening at the Starlight Drive-In (yes we have a Drive-In Intown) on Moreland Ave on 11/15. You've got to check this one out. It's hilarious!!! <http://www.myspace.com/downhillchallenge>

Kangaroos Without the 20 Hour Plane Ride?

Just a quick 1 1/2 hour jaunt up to Dawsonville is the largest collection of Kangaroos outside of Australia at the Kangaroo Preservation Center. You can even explore the grounds and even take a safari style guided tour. How cool is that? If I go and do a "research" trip is that a write off? Tom, am I good on that one? Details at <http://www.kangarooocenter.com/>

TRIVIA TIME!!!!

DJ Layfield miraculously won last month's trivia by correctly guessing the answer to:

John Heisman (Heisman Trophy) coached football at Georgia Tech in the early 1900's. What other sport did he coach at Tech?

Answer: Baseball and Basketball (Tricky, huh).

DJ won a lovely gift card which his wife promptly got to use. See, EVERYBODY WINS!!!!

So, this month's question, for a valuable prize is:

How did Zoo Atlanta (Atlanta's oldest attraction) get its start?

I cannot receive a higher compliment than a referral from one of our friends or clients. Whenever you hear of someone wanting to buy or sell a home, please keep me in mind and pass along their contact info.
