Getting you ready for the big February Holiday..... President's Day!!

Holy Birthday!! - East Atlanta's Holy Taco Turns Uno Anos.....

That's one year old for you people who didn't take Spanish in High School..... For a complete seasonal cycle, Holy Taco has welcomed diners, families and late-night barflies to its ultra-fresh eatery in East Atlanta Village. Guests have had a chance to munch on Chef Robert Phalen's superb Pan-Latin menu and sample some (but hopefully not all) of the 50 resident tequilas. Join Holy Taco on Friday, February 13 for a First Anniversary Celebration. It's the perfect excuse to try an organic margarita, a pork belly torta and the city's best churros dipped in dark chocolate sauce. The party starts on Friday, February 13th at 5 pm. www.holy-taco.com

Check Our Little Liana's AJC Article.....

Liana finally jumped in the deep end of the housing market and it was such a big event the AJC covered it..... Thanks for allowing me the honor of helping you out and I can't wait for the party!

First Friday in East Atlanta Village

All day Friday, February 6th the shops of East Atlanta Village will be hosting a customer appreciation event. Participating shops will offer various specials and donate a portion of their sales to DREAM Rescue (Dachhund Rescue Education, Awareness & Mentoring) - www.dreamrescue.org. Look for balloons with the First Friday Logo in front of participating shops & restaurants, come pick up a great gift for your sweetheart while supporting a great cause, and have fun, too!

Give your pooch a smooch..... after the shot.

Intown Healthy Hound and City Kitty on Cherokee Ave in Grant Park is hosting a low cost shot and microchip clinic Saturday, 2/14 from 11-1. What better Valentine gift than that of a healthy pet (diamond collars not included).

Recycle Information - How to get a bigger bin!

I tried putting the vinyl letters on mine and it works but the official city of Atlanta version is here: Larger Bin

Quite Possibly the Greatest Web Site in the World

I need to get my hits up to make myself feel better so I may have embellished a tad there. You want to go to www.marctakacs.com to look at Intown Neighborhood maps and pull up listings by neighborhood (just for you Tracey), pull up listings right from the MLS (Multiple Listing Service), download forms, see the archives of the award winning newsletter you're reading, look at localized market data and all sort of other neat-o real estate related stuff. Have a look and let me know if you'd like to see other stuff on there. I promise I'll try given my limited abilities.....

Vino, Liz and Mo'

Random, huh. February 9th, the Fabulous Fox Theater will present the Elizabeth Taylor classic, Cleopatra, on 35 mm film (movie buffs will appreciate that) as part of the Coca Cola concert series. Tickets are 10 bucks, but the real deal is getting there early and pay an extra 5 bucks for some wine tasting and a performance on the Fox's Classic musical instrument, the Mighty Mo' (my guess is Show Tunes will be involved somewhere). http://www.foxtheatre.org/coke_series.htm

TRIVIA TIME!!!

OK, last month's winner was the lovely and talented Adrian Terry, who knew that Watkins was the first company to offer a "Money Back Guarantee"

<http://www.watkinsonline.com/contentF.cfm?gcataloglocale=USA&Area=History&mainstg=Who%20We%20Are>

Founded in 1868, Watkins built their business on all natural ingredients and their health benefits. They've switched over to kind of a Multi-level type of company but one of the last retail stores is in East Atlanta Village at the corner of Metropolitan and Flat Shoals. They still carry their famous elixir, real vanilla, spices and even all natural cleaning products now. Stick your head in there one day and you'll probably be as surprised as I was.

So, for another oh so valuable prize (this might be a tough one), be the first to answer.....

Where does the Mighty Mo' get its name?

I cannot receive a higher compliment than a referral from one of our friends or clients. Whenever you hear of someone wanting to buy or sell a home, please keep me in mind and pass along their contact info. Also, if you have anything to add to this newsletter please don't hesitate to send them to me.
