WHAT A WONDERFUL WORLD

By Bob Thiele George & David Weiss

"What a Wonderful World" was recorded by Louis Armstrong in 1967. It was a number one hit in Britain on its release in 1968, but Americans wouldn't discover the song and its poetic beauty until it was featured in the 1987 film "Good Morning, Vietnam."

I see trees of green, red roses too.
I see them bloom, for me and you.
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.

I see skies of blue, and clouds of white.
The bright blessed day, the dark sacred night.
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.

The colors of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky.
Are also on the faces of people going by,
I see friends shaking hands, saying, "How do you do?"
They're really saying,
"I love you".

I hear babies cry, I watch them grow,
They'll learn much more, than I'll ever know.
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.

Yes, I think to myself,
What a wonderful world.
