SEPTEMBER 2013

HOME SWEET HOME eNewsletter

Dear Reader,

This Labor Day we salute The American Workforce - arguably the most productive workers on the planet. Americans work harder, longer hours and drive an economic engine that remains the envy of the world. American Workers, you make it happen every day - Take a bow!

Fall arrives September 22nd, and with the kids back in school, now is a great time to begin your home search! Interest rates remain low so buying or selling a home makes a lot of sense. Need help? Have questions? Just call or E-Mail.
