

Keller Williams Realty—Atlanta Perimeter

NANCY HALSEMA

A Pledge to my Buyers...

“I will assist you with clearly defining your housing requirements and find a selection of properties that meet the criteria, showing each in a manner to encourage thorough inspection and consideration. With each showing, while you preview for its assets, I will search for its flaws and research all appropriate data available.

When the property that best meets your needs is located, I will construct an offer that will result in a satisfactory, acceptable contract. I will continue to monitor all aspects of the transaction to its successful conclusion never losing my focus and commitment to your needs, resulting in your new Home. I will work diligently to seek a lifetime advocacy from you and pledge the services and loyalty required to achieve this endorsement”.

ATLANTA BOARD OF REALTORS 1997 Recipient of the Mrs. Harry Norman, Sr. Award

Most Outstanding Transaction in Conception, Development & Completion

“Determination and persistence were in great demand as this recipient worked through language barriers, cultural differences, governmental red tape, lack of credit, low appraisal, a second mortgage and even green card problems to find the American dream for a refugee family from Bosnia.”
