

RENOVATION LOANS WITH PRIMELENDING

Show More. Sell More.

Your clients have found a home in the perfect neighborhood, but it needs a little something to turn "like" into "love". With renovation loans from PrimeLending, potential homeowners can look beyond what exists to what can be while rolling the costs of repair or renovation into their mortgage.

Improvements can range from basic repairs to upgrades to more extensive additions or rebuilding. The loan amount is based on the increased value of the home after improvements are made. Some restrictions do apply, so be sure to consult with me for guidelines.
