John Powell, Owner/Broker of Powell Properties, a KW Commercial affiliate in Cary and Michelle Rich Goode, Owner/Broker of Rich Commercial Realty, a KW Commercial affiliate in North Raleigh, have been named to the National Commercial Leadership Council for KW Commercial. KW Commercial, in keeping with the structure and culture of Keller Williams Realty, has been built through an "agent-centric" business model. Members of the Commercial Leadership Council (CLC) are selected annually by Buddy Norman, President of KW Commercial, and are considered to be the top Keller Williams Realty commercial agents from across the United States and Canada. The CLC guides the direction, policy and strategy of KW Commercial and is instrumental in the commercial division's growth and development on a national level. Both John and Michelle are honored to be part of this elite group and look forward to working with their colleagues throughout 2011.
