Las Vegas has consistently maintained the highest new job growth in the United States. Since 1990, Las Vegas has also ranked number one in high-tech job growth (primarily high-tech services). The Nevada labor force has increased by nearly 350,000 people in the last decade. Not surprisingly, the construction industry continues to be a major employer in Southern Nevada as the demands for residential, resort, office and industrial space continue to soar.

Gaming, Las Vegas' trademark industry, has served as the catalyst for the lion's share of the Valley's phenomenal growth and outstanding economic success. From finance to construction and retail to service, Las Vegas' tourist and entertainment venues and hotel and casino resort properties promise a steady demand for jobs as well as create a wealth of new business opportunities.

Employment Cards/Certification

If you are hired in a food and beverage or child care position, you must obtain a health card from the Clark County Health District. If you are hired in the hotel or gaming industry, some positions are required to have a Sheriff's Work Card. A referral from the hotel/casino is required in order to get the Sheriff's Card. If you handle or work directly around liquor, you are required to have an Alcohol Education Card.

ASSISTED LIVING

As we age, we want to focus more on activities we enjoy than on the trivial ones. If you feel this way and you're looking for an environment that will let you focus on the activities and people you enjoy, than assisted living is an option for you. It provides a home in which your medical as well as general clean needs are managed for you.

NEVADA STATE PARKS

DAY TRIPS

Valley of Fire State Park

You can see some great sandstone formations as well as visible signs of ancient residents of the area. Early evening light introduces you to colors you never knew existed.

Grand Canyon

The park consists of 277 miles of the Colorado River and its massive erosional effects on the surrounding landscape. The Grand Canyon can be enjoyed from either the south or the north rims. The Grand Canyon is located about 250 miles from Las Vegas.

Red Rock Canyon

It is a scenic area of rock formations and desert with a 3,000-foot escarpment produced by a thrust fault. Red Rock Canyon has a Bureau of Land Management visitors center and is home to feral horses, wild burros, bighorn sheep, coyotes and a variety of desert plant life.

Bryce Canyon

The sandstone cliffs at Bryce Canyon will impress you with their peculiar colors. Take a hike down into one of the canyons and watch as birds soar high above the pinnacles that surround you.

Bonnie Springs Old Nevada

An old western town in Red Rock Canyon, with a motel, petting zoo, shops, activities and western shootouts. If you want to see what the real Las Vegas was like this is your chance.

BMX Track

Race your cruiser over a 1500 foot long dirt track of turns and obstacles. If you like riding your bike around your neighborhood or on a homemade track or jumps, then you'll like this competitive type of racing.

Mt. Charleston

Reaches a staggering height of 11,913 feet, and it is the third-highest peak in Nevada.

Zion National Park

One of the most awe inspiring sights in the American Southwest. Featuring sky-high towers and cliffs of multicolored sandstone rocks, the 2,000 to 3,000-foot high canyon walls of Zion National Park were carved out over millions of years by trickling creeks and the rushing Virgin River.

Spring Mountain Ranch State Park

Beneath the colorful cliffs of the magnificent Wilson Range. The many springs in these mountains provided water for Paiute Indians.
