

Highly likely to recommend

05/27/2016 - jfelici1

Sold a Single Family home in 2016 for approximately $175K in Fairport, Fairport, NY.

- Local knowledge:
- Process expertise:
- Responsiveness:
- Negotiation skills:

Steve and Evan are both outstanding professionals. Their attention to detail and assistance made the sale of our home painless. They provided us with their expertise on everything starting with evaluating our home, preparing it for sale, and the closing process. They also went above and beyond expectations as we relocated to another state and they were in constant communications and checked on the house until it closed. We're extremely grateful for their assistance. I would highly recommend them to anyone looking to sell or buy a home.

Highly likely to recommend

07/19/2016 - c a casadonte

Bought and sold a Single Family home in 2016 for approximately $100K in Rochester, NY.

- Local knowledge:
- Process expertise:
- Responsiveness:
- Negotiation skills:

I am a 40 year old professional that just purchased his first ever home. Steve was not only a fantastic real estate agent, but turned out to be a trusted friend through it all. No matter the time of day nor the question I had, Steve was right there with an answer or a "I will get back to you ASAP" which was usually no more than 15 minutes. This gentleman made my home-buying experience so very easy and almost fun, it was just amazing. I rave about my experiences to anybody that will listen, and I am so very glad to have this opportunity to publicly recognize him for being such a wonderful professional and friend throughout the whole process. Steve will be my real estate agent for as long as he is doing the job