Juliana & Eric Vallee, Mega Team Joins Keller Williams Elite Realty

Port Coquitlam, BC, 2012 – Juliana & Eric Vallee, one of New Westminister's top-producing real estate teams made the move to Keller Williams Elite Realty and is turning heads.

“We're excited to welcome Juliana & Eric to the Keller Williams Realty family,” says John Furber, Canadian Director, “This company succeeds through its people, and having Juliana & Eric on our team is a huge win for us.”

Eric says “It was an easy decision to make the move to Keller Williams. With KW, it is agent centered and because of this, we have available to us the resources to take our business to the next level by using cutting edge technology and top notch training. KW's philosophy coincides with our personal beliefs, in that, we put our family first before business. And through KW's systems and models, we are able to build and grow our business while still maintaining a work-life balance.”

“Since being exposed to the Keller Williams systems and models 2 years prior, I quickly implemented them into my business that I was able to achieve Rookie of the Year for 2011 from the Greater Vancouver Real Estate Boards.” Says Juliana

“We know success lies in surrounding yourself with like minded positive people” says Matt Kirby Team Leader/CEO for Keller Williams Elite Realty. “The Vallee's have built their business by exceeding client expectations while always looking for new fresh ideas on how to develop better systems within their business that creates a business worth owning”

Keller Williams Elite Realty is located at Unit A 123 2099 Loughheed Hwy Port Coquitlam, BC.
