Keller Williams Canada respects yesterday's vote of the Canadian Real Estate Association (CREA) delegates to approve CREA's consent agreement with the Commissioner of Competition.

We believe that the market, along with the high-level of services that our agents provide, will dictate service and fee agreements between our agents and their clients. We endorse open and fair competition among all Canadian agents and brokerages and have tremendous respect for all our competitors and their business models.

As a company, we are proud to offer our clients full-service real estate brokerage services and a powerful platform upon which they can list or search for their home.

We trust that our agents, as proud members of CREA, will continue to exemplify the highest standards of ethical and fiduciary service to their clients.
