The Farquhar Team joins forces with Keller Williams Realty

TORONTO, ON January, 2012 – Keller Williams Canada is excited to announce that Tasi Farquhar, Norm Farquhar and Adrienne Farquhar, one of West Toronto’s top producing teams, has joined Keller Williams Realty. The Farquhar Team, previously of Re/Max, will be spearheading the launch of a new Keller Williams office in the Bloor West Village area of Toronto.

“It is a privilege to be in business with the Farquhar family. They are high performing, learning based individuals who are committed to serving realtors and the public at a very high level” says John Furber, Director of Canada, Keller Williams Realty.

Norm Farquhar says, “We believe the best way to grow our business and service our clients is to establish a Real estate Brokerage under the auspices of Keller Williams Realty; who share similar beliefs, values and vision”

The Farquhar family believes in the importance of a “balanced life” and brings that mentality to their business operations. The culture at Keller Williams, one of support, education, profit sharing and leadership is a business model that they are keen to embrace.

“The synergies between Keller Williams Realty and the Farquhar Team will provide another powerful step forward in the rapid growth of Keller Williams in Canada” says Furber.

The West Toronto KW office is expected to open in late spring, 2012.
