Keller Williams Realty Group Celebrates Their Best Month Ever By 18%

The Agents and Staff at Keller Williams Realty Group in Royersford

Keller Williams Realty Group in Royersford recently set another company milestone. A celebration took place in the office to acknowledge all the agents who made the company have their Best Month Ever by 18%. Industry reports say the real estate market has slowed down, but that hasn't stopped the agents at Keller Williams Realty Group. They continue to increase their profit margin month after month.

The celebration began in the early afternoon in the office with food and desserts spread out throughout the entire office. Market Center Coordinator Amity Atkins worked hard all morning preparing the office with balloons in every direction you turned. All of the agents and staff came together for the lunch hour to enjoy each others company and celebrate this company landmark.

"Staying connected to customers is one of the most important things an agent can do. Being new to the company, I immediately recognized how every agent was committed to their clients and how they are always looking for innovative ways to meet their clients demands" said Gina Stango, the Market Center Care Specialist. With the dedication of the agents, and a new expanded Market Center opening in Limerick – they plan on exceeding the goals they met as they move into 2008.
