Volunteering and Charitable Organizations

Volunteer Center, 323-1898 – puts volunteers in contact with non-profit organizations.

Community Service Organizations

Aids Services of Austin

458-2437 [www.intelliquest.com/as a](http://www.intelliquest.com/as a)

AIDS Services of Austin provides quality care for those infected by HIV. Housed in their facilities are a food bank, information line, legal services, and space for seminars and training. Other services provided by the center are a dental clinic, financial assistance, at-home nursing, nutritional workshops, and an extensive referral service. AIDS Services does not provide HIV testing, but does give referrals to 12 other agencies in Austin where testing is available. Approximately 500 volunteers help staff the agency and organize annual events such as this year's twelfth annual "From All Walks of Life" fund-raising walk. Other volunteer opportunities include being an animal companion volunteer, and volunteering in the food pantry.

Any Baby Can

1121 E 7th, Austin

454-3743 www.abcaus.org

Any Baby Can's mission is to provide support, crisis assistance and a voice for children with special health care needs and disabilities ages birth through 12 years. ABC strives to save the child and the family by improving access to health and human services and coordinating services and special programs in Travis and surrounding counties.

Austin Area Garden Council

2220 Barton Springs Road

478-8672 www.zilker-garden.org

The Garden Council works with the city to maintain Zilker Botanical Gardens and is dedicated to improving the gardens and educating the public about plants and horticulture. Their mission is to educate children and adults about the natural beauty of plants, their interaction with animals and their importance to man, in order to improve the quality of the cultural and social environment of the city through horticultural activities, and to develop programs at Zilker Botanical Gardens with an educational purpose. The Plantmobile acts as a traveling art/science museum. It brings a multi-sensory, hands-on lesson to schools and helps teachers utilize butterfly gardens for education. Supermarket Botany ties nutrition into the curriculum in area schools.

Austin Area Urban League

1825 East 38-1/2 Street

478-7176 www.nul.org

It was originally established to address the concerns relating to the socio-economic conditions of African-Americans and disadvantaged citizens in the Austin metropolitan area. The mission of the Austin Area Urban League is to assist African-Americans and disadvantaged citizens in the achievement of social and economic equality. Through direct service delivery and advocacy, the Urban League provides employment and training, education, youth development and emergency home repair.

Programs and activities include:

Center for Housing and Emergency Home Repair

After School Enrichment Program

Center for Education and Youth Development

The Young Journalism Program

Center for Workforce Training and Career Development

Teen Enrichment at the Mall

Austin Habitat for Humanity

310 Comal Street, #100, Austin

472-8788 www.austinhabitat.org

Austin Habitat for Humanity addresses the affordable housing crisis by creating partnerships with low-income families and others in the community to build new homes for these families.

Austin Parks Foundation

2112 Rio Grande, 477-1566

The mission of the Austin Parks Foundation is to develop partnerships and resources to support the needs of Austin area parks. The Foundation is nationally recognized as a leader in private park philanthropy and is a member of the Urban Parks Institute. Austin Parks Foundation provides design facilitation, technical assistance, marketing and outreach, and fiduciary services to park supporters and advocates, and management consulting to the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department in order to enhance the parks, recreational programs and community open spaces of the capital area.

Austin Smiles

1600 West 38th Street, Suite 444

451-9300 www.main.org/smiles

Austin Smiles provides free cleft lip/palate surgery to children in Austin, surrounding counties, and Latin America. Cleft lip/palate deformities can interfere with a child's ability to eat, breathe, and communicate with the world. These children are often social outcasts and are often hidden away and left to accept their deformities for life. Austin Smiles provides the opportunity for a volunteer to change a child's life forever.

Breast Cancer Resource Center

472-1710 www.bcrc.org

Little House is a child-sized free standing building which is used for children's activities.

Junior League of Austin

The Junior League of Austin provides volunteers and funding to area nonprofit agencies for the benefit and enrichment of the Austin community. Agencies must apply to become a Community Project. Applications may be for volunteers alone or volunteers and accompanying funds. Other than its Community Projects, The Junior League of Austin actively seeks innovative ways to be involved in the community. Some of these opportunities include:

Done in a Day Projects

The Junior League will provide volunteers for half-day, one-day or two-day community events.

Community Assistance Fund

Agencies experiencing or responding to an emergency or disaster which places the agency's operations or capabilities for service in jeopardy may apply to The Junior League of Austin for a grant of up to $3,000 to be awarded from the Community Assistance Fund. The nature of the emergency or the disaster must be such that it could not or should not reasonably have been either foreseen or planned for in the agency's budgeting process.

Sponsorship Fund

Sponsorship grants are available to agencies for events that address community issues and/or enable The Junior League of Austin to impact new segments of the population.

An agency may receive a sponsorship grant once every year three years. Agencies receiving grants are required to sign a contract with The Junior League of Austin specifying the purpose for which the funds are to be used and agreeing to submit a final accounting for all expenditures of the grant monies.

ABC Grants

The Junior League of Austin gives grants of up to $500 to Austin area teachers to initiate creative projects that supplement classroom curricula.
