

Spring in Georgia

Savannah Music Festival - Savannah

www.SavannahMusicFestival.org

March 18 - April 3, 2010

One of the largest music festivals in the Southeast, this annual musical marathon showcases indigenous music from the Deep South, originally conceived chamber music and internationally renowned musicians performing a diverse range of musical styles including symphonic music, blues, jazz, gospel, chamber music, bluegrass, rock, international music and dance styles.

Spring Celebration at Callaway Gardens - Pine Mountain

www.CallawayGardens.com

March 20 - April 24, 2010

Each of the Spring Celebration weeks features activities for enjoying the natural beauty and breathtaking spring blossoms at Callaway Gardens. Hands-on activities, educational experiences, guided hikes and much more offer spring fun at its best for all ages.

Atlanta Dogwood Festival - Atlanta

www.Dogwood.org

April 16 - 18, 2010

A favorite springtime tradition in the Southeast, the Atlanta Dogwood Festival is a celebration of arts and entertainment. Events and activities include non-stop live entertainment, a professionally juried arts Festival featuring more than 200 top artists and craftsmen, one of the largest Frisbee Dog events in the nation, an interactive zone for kids and so much more.

Spring FUN Break - Stone Mountain Park

www.StoneMountainPark.com

April 2 - 10, 2010

Head for Crossroads at Stone Mountain Park for nine days of spring fun for kids of all ages including popular characters, a 4D movie experience, the Fun Zone for face painting, balloon artists, crafts and more.

North of Gwinnett Street (NOGS) Tour

http://gcosavnogstour.org

April 23 - 24, 2010

The Garden Club of Savannah selects different private gardens each year for excellence of design, historical interest and beauty for this spring walking tour (In 2010, the tour name NOGS changed from North of Gaston to North of Gwinnett to incorporate the southernmost streets of the National Historic District.)

Spring in Georgia

Georgia Renaissance Festival - Fairburn

www.garenfest.com

Located just minutes south of Atlanta near Exit 61 of I-85

April 17 - June 6, 2010: Saturdays and Sundays plus Memorial Day

The eagerly awaited Georgia Renaissance Festival features eight weeks of weekend spring fun including colorfully costumed performers and nonstop entertainment, a 32-acre Artisan Market, thrilling rides and games, parades, great food, jousting contests, period activities and more.

Annual Rose Show and Festival - Thomasville

www.downtownthomasville.com

April 22 - 24, 2010

This annual festival, held each year beginning on the fourth Friday in April, includes parades, live music, food, sporting events, arts and crafts, an elegant plantation ball, a family-oriented street dance and, of course, beautiful roses.

Georgia Strawberry Festival - Reynolds

www.ga-strawberry.org

April 23 - 24, 2010

Enjoy dinner and gospel music on Friday evening and a day of fun at the Strawberry Festival on Saturday. Festival events include a Teddy Bear Parade, a Grand Parade featuring antique cars and tractors, over 100 selected artists and craftsmen, a Strawberry Cook-off, Lawn Mover Races, live entertainment and more.

Vidalia Onion Festival - Vidalia

www.VidaliaOnionFestival.com

April 23 - 25, 2010

In anticipation of the harvest of the Vidalia Sweet Onion, this annual festival held during the last weekend in April includes a street dance, onion eating contest, rodeo, Onion Fun Run, children's parade, air show, fireworks, the Vidalia Onion Arts and Craft Festival and more. Also see Vidalia Onion Recipes.

Inman Park Spring Festival and Tour of Homes - Atlanta

www.InmanPark.org/Festival

April 24 - 25, 2010

This Atlanta neighborhood festival and home tour, held during the last full weekend in April each year, features Atlanta's biggest street market, an arts and crafts show, a popular parade lead by the Inman Park Butterfly, live entertainment, food and beverage vendors, activities for kids and more.